

Foundational Faith

Foundational Faith

Return to God Alone - by Andrew Ball (eBook)

$4.00

However, after Jesus left, Christians began pushing (with all their strength), God down and Jesus up, Golden-Calfing, introducing antigod nonsensities such as; "Jesus is God." "Christ, who is God overall", as well as "the Trinity", all being among our mankinded newly-made abominations.

If Jesus could at some stage come down to earth, he would be utterly gutted, and would probably overturn tables, whip left and right with cords, as all this would be a complete defilement to him, being the most Supreme blaspheme against his and our precious Father, all in absolute disobedience, incurring risk from God and Jesus to both turning their backs as if they never knew us.

This book expands on this, showing the way of how we sinners can return to God Alone after correcting a few fundamental Laws towards Him and His servant-teacher Jesus, all in love and peace and purpose with our true God at last.

Vendor Information